INTRODUCTION

How well educated and trained are we for a working life of employment? As we enter the knowledge society and leave the information age, new skills have become more critical.

Human Capital Management is about educating and training a workforce that is highly employable, with a different mindset than before.

JobStreet.com is a strategic partner at the IFTDO (International Federation of Training and Development Organizations) 35th World Conference & Exhibition 2006. From August 21 to 25, 2006, over 2000 educators, trainers and HR professionals will attend this world event at the KLCC Convention Center, Kuala Lumpur. They will explore how education and training can be better harmonized to meet the new challenges of Human Capital Management.

About the event

In conjunction with this world conference, JobStreet.com and SFR Consultants are organizing a Pre-Conference, incorporating the JobStreet 11th Human Resource Networking Event on 22 June 2006. This one day seminar will enable you to get a 'taste' of the new challenges and learn about some of the critical skills required for the 21st century knowledge society.

This Pre-Conference is a special occasion purposely organized for you to meet other HR professionals and share ideas / experiences. So, bring along a lot of business cards and come early.

What will you gain from this event ?

- Understanding the current HR environment related to training and development.
- A chance to network with peers from the industry.

Who should attend?

- HR Managers and Executives. Any managers involved in HR, training and development.

Participants to this pre-conference will receive a door gift worth RM50.

Date : 22 June 2006
